(December 1, 2009 – Hong Kong) Kingsoft Corporation Limited ("Kingsoft" or the "Company"; SEHK stock code: 03888), China's leading entertainment and applications software developer, distributor and service provider, based on market share, today announced that the Company won four awards at 2009 China Game Industry Annual Conference, including "Outstanding Game Company in China for 2009". And JXIII was proudly awarded "The Best Self-Developed Online Game in China for 2009", the most prestigious prize in the conference. On the other hand, Kingsoft Internet Security became the first Chinese-made anti-virus software which passed the international authoritative Av-comparatives testing. Kingsoft Internet Security also received VB100 certifications several times from international authoritative anti-virus evaluation organizations. Kingsoft's entertainment and applications software consecutively received awards and accreditations from various domestic and international organizations reflected the company's outstanding products and excellent research and development capabilities as well as strong comprehensive corporation capability. These further strengthen Kingsoft's market leader position in the industry.

Held by China Software Industry Association Game Section, and supported by Ministry of Industry and Information Technology, Ministry of Culture, Ministry of Science and Technology as well as Ministry of Commerce of China, 2009 China Game Industry Annual Conference was an annual summit in China gaming industry with very high reputation.

Numerous awards were presented during 2009 China Game Industry Annual Conference to recognize outstanding operators in the industry. Kingsoft was granted four awards, namely "Outstanding Game Company in China for 2009", "Pioneer in Product R&D in China Game Industry for 2009", "Outstanding Entrepreneur" for Mr Pak Kwan KAU, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Kingsoft, and "The Best Self-Developed Online Game in China for 2009" for JXIII.

On the other hand, "Av-comparatives" – the independent international authoritative anti-virus software evaluation organization just announced that Kingsoft Internet Security passed its test in August 2009 Test, which set.Kingsoft Internet Security as the first and the only Chinese-made anti-virus software that passed the test so far. This affirmed Kingsoft Internet Security's anti-virus capabilities and leading position in the industry.

Mr. Pak Kwan KAU, Chairman and CEO of Kingsoft, said, "Kingsoft always insists self-development and will continue to adhere to this development strategy. In the future, we will introduce more self-developed online games and hope the characteristics of the Chinese martial arts and culture of the game will be able to attract more players. Regarding the applications software business, the company is now in the leading position in the industry but will also further review, and constantly improve the functionality of products to meet the needs of users."
