Kingsoft Opens SDK Source Code Promotes China-made Office Software

(Nov 5, 2009 – Hong Kong) Kingsoft Corporation Limited (“Kingsoft” or the “Company”; SEHK stock code: 3888), a leading entertainment and applications software developer, distributor and service provider in China based on market share, announces that the Company’s office software UOF SDK source code has already opened for all the office software developers as well as individual users to download for free at the website www.uofsdk.org. This will greatly facilitate other manufacturers to produce office software applications base on UOF standard. Promotion of application of UOF in China will greatly benefit the overall development of China-made office software, and increase its market share.

UOF in the format of Chinese office application is equipped with Chinese Government’s national standards. At present, the global prevalent document format standards are UOF, ODF and OOXML, while OOXML is dominated by Microsoft. Such opening of UOF Open SDK source code may improve the interoperability and compatibility of China-made office software as well as enhancing the competitiveness of China-made office software.

Mr. Ke Ge, Kingsoft’s Senior Vice President, said : “Kingsoft is one of the leading software developers involved in the development of UOF, the office software series fully support UOF standard. Kingsoft is delighted to open the SDK source code of UOF so as to promote the application of UOF in China, thereby advance the China-made market of office software. We believe that the expansion of China-made office software market will eventually bring opportunities to Kingsoft and the industry. ”
